

EGYPT FORWARD

"Egypt and the United States represent one of the oldest and deepest alliances in the Arab world."

A Message to the American People in Celebration of Independence Day 2017 from President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi

President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi of Egypt sent the following message to President Donald Trump and the American people:

The government and people of the Arab Republic of Egypt extend our best wishes to you and the American people on the occasion of the 241st anniversary of the independence of the United States.

Egypt and the United States represent one of the oldest and deepest alliances in the Arab world, with diplomatic relations first established in 1922 and reestablished in 1974.

Our two nations are bound together by a shared commitment to peace, security and prosperity. We value our partnership as we work together to fight terrorism and extremism, expand commercial and investment opportunities, and encourage Egyptians and Americans to interact in their daily lives.

Our partnership is especially important today as Egypt is in the midst of an historic political and economic transition in which we welcome the support of your government and the American people.

As your nation celebrates its independence on July 4, the Egyptian people reaffirm the strong and lasting friendship that binds our two nations.

ABOUT EGYPT FORWARD

Sponsored by the Government of Egypt to explore and inform international audiences on the historic, transformative progress taking place in Egypt through the stories of the people living and shaping it.

egyptfwd.org

This material is a statement by Abdel Fattah el-Sisi, President of the Arab Republic of Egypt. Additional information is available on the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

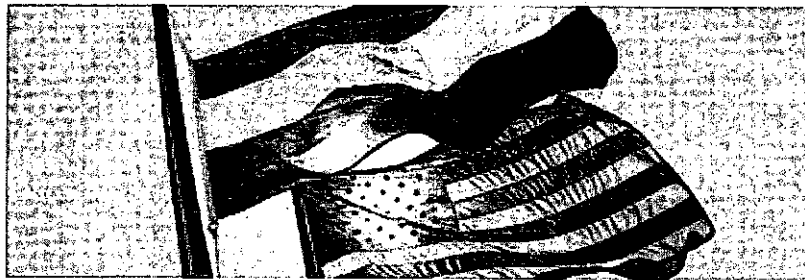

MSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2017 JUL 19 PM 12:04

EGYPT FORWARD

"Egypt and the United States represent one of the oldest and deepest alliances in the Arab world."

A Message to the American People in Celebration of Independence Day 2017 from President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi

President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi of Egypt sent the following message to President Donald Trump and the American people:

The government and people of the Arab Republic of Egypt extend our best wishes to you and the American people on the occasion of the 241st anniversary of the independence of the United States.

Egypt and the United States represent one of the oldest and deepest alliances in the Arab world, with diplomatic relations first established in 1922 and reestablished in 1974.

Our two nations are bound together by a shared commitment to peace, security and prosperity. We value our partnership as we work together to fight terrorism and extremism, expand commercial and investment opportunities, and encourage Egyptians and Americans to interact in their daily lives.

Our partnership is especially important today as Egypt is in the midst of an historic political and economic transition in which we welcome the support of your government and the American people.

As your nation celebrates its independence on July 4, the Egyptian people reaffirm the strong and lasting friendship that binds our two nations.

ABOUT EGYPT FORWARD

Sponsored by the Government of Egypt to explore and inform international audiences on the historic, transformative progress taking place in Egypt through the stories of the people living and shaping it.

egyptfwd.org

This material is produced by the Arab Republic of Egypt. Additional information is available at the Department of State, Washington, D.C.

NSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT

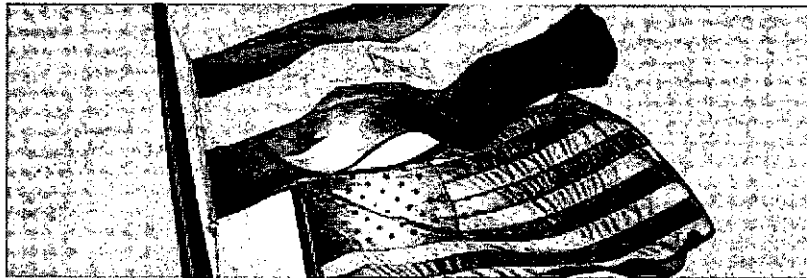

2017 JUL 19 PM12:04

EGYPT FORWARD

"Egypt and the United States represent one of the oldest and deepest alliances in the Arab world."

A Message to the American People in Celebration of Independence Day 2017 from President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi

President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi of Egypt sent the following message to President Donald Trump and the American people:

The government and people of the Arab Republic of Egypt extend our best wishes to you and the American people on the occasion of the 241st anniversary of the independence of the United States.

Egypt and the United States represent one of the oldest and deepest alliances in the Arab world, with diplomatic relations first established in 1922 and reestablished in 1974.

Our two nations are bound together by a shared commitment to peace, security and prosperity. We value our partnership as we work together to fight terrorism and extremism, expand commercial and investment opportunities, and encourage Egyptians and Americans to interact in their daily lives.

Our partnership is especially important today as Egypt is in the midst of an historic political and economic transition in which we welcome the support of your government and the American people.

As your nation celebrates its independence on July 4, the Egyptian people reaffirm the strong and lasting friendship that binds our two nations.

ABOUT EGYPT FORWARD

Sponsored by the Government of Egypt to explore and inform international audiences on the historic, transformative progress taking place in Egypt through the stories of the people living and shaping it.

egyptfwd.org

This material is disseminated by Webex Broadcasting on behalf of the Arab Republic of Egypt. Additional information is available in the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

